

Attachments required for existing data

- (1) (Original) Questionnaire that was used collecting the data
- (2) (Original) Informed consent including Information letter(s) which were use in the original study to inform participants about the (confidential) handling and storage of their data
- (3) Formal ethical approval letter of the committee who was involved in the original data collection